Ad Text Fortunately, some patriots in the United States don't stay away, while traitors destroy this country. Our friends from San Diego organized a rally to support ideas of Donald Trump. Patriots carried and waved American flags, while the Clinton/Sanders supporters carried MEXICAN flags and attempted to confront a very diverse group of Donald Trump supporters. That explains why the Democrats encourage the illegal immigration. They are ready to destroy America just to be elected.

We have to defend this nation! Let's organize rallies against the illegal immigration around the whole country! Let's flood the United States with American flags!

If you have a desire to organize a rally in your city, please contact us. We can help you. Only our patriotism can save the United States of America!

Ad Text We have many problems in our country at the moment. Healthcare, education and Veterans are just on the top of the list. But one problem is destroying our country more than anything else. Illegal aliens affect our economy drastically. Not only they sink the job market and steal hundreds of millions of welfare dollars, they also flood America with drugs, which is the worst. Mexican cartels have a stable stream of drugs through the border and our government does nothing with it.

To cure our nation we need to get rid of all the gangs and illegal immigrants and build a huge wall so they would never come back!

Ad Text All people have to understand that the police service is exactly like a secret gay club, the reason being that no one knows what goes on inside there even if it's evident. There's a kind of code of silence, even if you saw something or just know something about other police officer, you keep silence about it. But if you are in a member of a club, you can be sure that no one will ever let your secrets out. Statistically, 46% of cops admit to witnessing misconduct by other cops! Also, 73 % of the individuals pressuring officers to keep quiet about the misconduct are leaders. 8% of the officers who admitted to intentionally withholding the information about officer misconduct were upper administrators. Cops will always lie to suit interaction or conversation. Sadly enough, "Sworn officer of the court" is most likely to lie than the citizen he is even accusing. So, the lie is a norm for the officers who are keeping the code of silence, and it's a miracle if a police officer tells the truth.

All people have to understand that the police service is exactly like a secret gay club, the reason being that no one knows what goes on inside there even if it's evident. Ad Text President Barack Obama signed a bill Friday eliminating the offensive and outdated descriptors, after the legislation passed unanimously in the House and Senate earlier this month. Rep. Grace Meng (D-N.Y.) sponsored the bill, which aimed to “modernize” two references to “Orientals” and “Negros” in the U.S. Code that date to the 1970’s. The words will be replaced with “Asian Americans” and “African Americans,” respectively. “The term ‘Oriental’ has no place in federal law and at long last this insulting and outdated term will be gone for good,” Meng said in a statement on Friday. Obama signed the bill shortly before leaving for his trip to Vietnam and Japan, where he will become the first sitting U.S. president to visit Hiroshima.

Rodney Sumter Jr., 27 miraculously survived Pulse nightclub Orlando shooting, being shot three times. But he's still in a lot of pain.

Rodney is still recovering at Orlando Regional Medical Center. Lenita Sumter, his mother, said he is in intense pain and that it has been difficult for him to get comfortable and is needing sedation and heavy pain medications.

Rodney was shot in the arms and back. He had surgery Monday to repair his arms, but shrapnel was left in his back. He had another surgery Wednesday night, family said.

Doctors said Rodney is running a fever and suspect he may have an infection.

3rd federal court case seeks to block Mississippi LGBT law

A diverse group of gay, straight and transgender people have filed the third federal court challenge seeking to block a Mississippi law that lets clerks cite religious beliefs to recuse themselves from issuing marriage licenses to same-sex couples. The lawsuit filed Friday says House Bill 1523 violates the separation of church and state by favoring "certain narrow religious beliefs that condemn same-sex couples who get married, condemn unmarried people who have sexual relations and condemn transgender people."

How many times do we have to do this? Your BELIEFS don't supersede my RIGHTS!! You just want to use your religious beliefs as an excuse to deliberately harm others and have no consequences for doing so! You can believe whatever you wish, but you cannot use those beliefs to deny me my rights!

Ad Text President Barack Obama defended his decision to open up bathrooms to students of both sexes based on preference, citing his religious faith as a reason he decided to do it.

"My reading of scripture tells me that that [the] Golden Rule is pretty high up there in terms of my Christian belief," he said during a town hall in Elkhart, Indiana.

Obama is nothing more than an ignoramus and provocateur shamelessly mocking the Bible. Thanks God, the national nightmare is almost over. He tries to create as many conflicts among the population as it's possible destroying everything we hold of worth.

But if they turn away, then seize them and kill them wherever you find them and take not from among them any ally or helper." (Qur'an 4:89)

This Surah is an evidence of how Syrian refugees respect our culture. If you think that Muslims ignore some Islamic rules, you're wrong. For example, a Muslim in eastern Uganda strangled his Christian wife to death this month for leaving Islam.

What would you do if your wife or husband converts to Islam? Probably you would be upset. In the worst case, you would sue for divorce. But I'm sure you would not kill your spouse. That's the difference between our cultures.

Ad Text Everyday we watch, read and receive news of police beating, assaulting, and killing innocent people. These videos and instances have become so common that people are rarely shocked by even the most brutal of cases. We were wondering how long time would it take to make people fighting back? So now, karma's coming back for blue pigs!

A shocking video was shared on social media Tuesday showing two police officers being attacked. Two unidentified men were seen beating up the two officers for seemingly no reason.

The incident occurred Monday afternoon in Northeast Philadelphia after two school police officers were called to break up a fight outside of a local pizza shop. As we can see police couldn't stop the fight. Now we see what kind of police do we have. Those cops are slow weak doughnuts, who can do literally nothing without using their guns.

Cops can blame themselves when shit like this happens. They live by their own laws, they can break your arms and legs, torture you with chemical and electrical ways, rape or even kill you "doing their job." All those things and more are well within departmental policy. So I'd rather give a fight for my rights than ignore the fact our country becoming a Nazi States of America.

Look around, the only other thing that will happen is that people will whine about it, but will ultimately do nothing to actively stop this behavior, and this is why cops are so violent now. If we want to stop it, we should fight as our ancestors did it for centuries.

Take out a few dozen cops and the rest will change. Amen.

Ad Text Please take a moment to read my story!

Back in 2015, Douglas Babbitt was talking on the phone in the driver's seat of his parked van when a police officer asked if an open beer bottle on the ground near the vehicle's front passenger door belonged to him. Notice the location of the beer can - it's located on the ground, outside of the vehicle, on the passenger's side.

When Babbitt said the beer wasn't his, the police needlessly escalated the situation that lead to Babbitt's arrest, and left the 51-year-old Oakland man briefly lying unconscious on the ground.

The beer wasn't in his car, and a toxicology report from after his arrest shows that he had no alcohol in his system. So what's the problem with you guys? Damn, after all that, the only thing I may conclude is DO NOT TALK TO POLICE! The following video is a prime example of why...

Ad Text Cops are allergic to cameras, they don't like being recorded because it won't allow them to break the law and lie about the circumstances which presented them the opportunity to break the law.

?WARNING!!!? In yet another disturbing video of police escalating violence in a public school, a Philadelphia school cop was caught on video in an intense altercation with a student.

According to the Philadelphia Student Union, of which the alleged victim, Brian Burney, the incident was all over a dispute over using the bathroom.

The student, who recorded the incident, was told to delete it. All that is left is a brief clip showing the officer, who is twice the size of Burney, on top of him.

I don't understand why are there cops in schools? Cops are nothing more than a bunch of bullies or gang members in police uniforms! Whatever happened to deans? Moreover, don't you think it's a bit strange, when an officer forces someone to delete video? Obviously, police is trying to hide something and their testimony should be considered a lie. Also, is not destruction of evidence a crime?

What do you think about it guys? Please, share or comment below.

Ad Text Clark Dickson, a veteran Seattle police department officer, punched a homeless 21-year-old man in the head and remained unpunished. The cop said that his misconduct was "justified" because the man had spit at him.

Almost one year after the incident, the footage showing the punch was released. Personally, I didn't notice in the video the suspect spitting at Dickson. However, the police department didn't consider it necessary to punish the cop. The only penalty he got was a suspension without pay for 1 day.

Is it really enough for excessive force use?

He did everything to escape the police violence, but he couldn't because we live in a police state, where every arrest turns into a nightmare.

Ad Text Jess Cooke was traveling through an interior US Border Checkpoint in Waddington, New York when she was stopped for "looking suspicious" by the border patrol. Cooke is a law student, so she knows her rights. When she refused to consent to search, she was told to wait for a K-9 unit to arrive before she could leave.

Cooke didn't commit any crime, that's why she wanted to leave, but officers had the different plans. She was thrown to the ground by the male agent and the female agent deployed the taser. After she screamed from the pain for several seconds, she was handcuffed, while agents illegally opened her truck and searched it. Of course, they found nothing. She spent over an hour in handcuffs and then about 4 hours in the US customs Station in Ogdensburg before she could go home.

This girl's day was totally ruined because cops thought that she looked suspicious. After they ILLEGALLY searched her vehicle, she couldn't go.

This is what real terrorism looks like!

Ad Text #Chicago released hundreds of videos, audio recordings and documents related to 101 pending investigations by the independent Police Review Authority, which investigates police-involved incidents.

This is one of the videos that authorities have released. Though the video is a clear example of an excessive force, the report said that police officer had to use his baton to protect himself.

Another cop was caught lying about the case. It's not the first video that proves that cops are lying bastards and it's not the last. What they do is systematically abusing people and then covering it with "I was feared for my life" phrase. If it's so scaring to be a police officer, may be they should find another job?

What punishment do you think he deserves for that?!

Ad Text An NYPD sergeant Diana Pichardo that was named in at least 20 federal lawsuits including an allegation of false arrest and police brutality, was caught on a video grabbing a bystander's phone, arresting him without reason and searching his home without a warrant. Instead of getting fired or arrested for her actions, she is facing only a disciplinary review.
The victim's only crime was filming him while she was assaulting and brutalizing his neighbors!

Though it's legal to film the police, cops are so scared of people recording them. It means that we have to keep following them with our cameras. It's our only way to prove that they were violent and it's our only hope for justice!

Ad Text Muhammad Ali, the greatest boxer this world has ever known, is no more. The fact that he is gone is difficult to come to terms with; for years, Ali was renowned as a larger than life figure, the greatest, as he called himself, and the demise of a man of such a high stature is surely a void that can never be filled.

In the world of sports, Muhammad Ali will forever be known as the boxing legend who won 56 bouts over the period of a 21-year career. In popular culture, he will be remembered as the man who was not afraid when it came to speaking his mind -- someone who was not shy of talking about things unrelated to boxing, and would always take the right stand when needed.

He risked his career and reputation by opposing the US-Vietnam War. Furthermore, he refused to serve in the US Army and in the process, was accused of committing a felony.

Now that he is gone, this world is left with memories, and a void that cannot be filled. May Allah rest his soul in peace and paradise!!!

They are not victims of war, they are the war itself. We need to protect ourselves from this menace by deporting all the refugees we have and refusing to take any more of them.

Recently a huge drug cartel operation was discovered in North Carolina. Over the course of the investigation, authorities seized six pounds of crystal meth, eight pounds of marijuana, 49.3 grams of heroin, four handguns and $2.5 million in cash, according to a press release. "It would be safe to say that the money would be taken back to Mexico, and that's where the source of the cocaine was," special agent Tim Stone said.

This is good news, but sadly this operation is just one of the thousands, which makes it just a slap on the wrist. Our traitor government does nothing to prevent drug influx, but only trying to create the presence of an effort. The most part of this poison comes through southern border, but it is still as unprotected as it possibly can be and drug cartels are abusing it as much as they can.

At the expense of our tax dollars and lives of our youth, our government officials continue to make some kinds of vile deals with drug cartels to get filthy rich and gain more control over weaken nation.

Only a huge wall with gun towers will stop this invasion. Trump is our only hope for a better future!

Ad Text "If you ask me about the Clinton Foundation, do I have a problem when a sitting secretary of state and a foundation run by her husband collects many millions of dollars from foreign governments, many governments which are dictatorships... yeah, I do," Sanders said in an interview with Jake Tapper on CNN.

So, Bernie has the point. I appreciate the way he maintains his independent opinion in spite of all the pressure that is on him as the "second Democratic option". Because that is a fact. The Clinton Foundation is nothing more than an "organized crime" at it's finest, in which we are investing our taxpayers' money!

Hillary has no problem in accepting foreign money from the countries, like Saudi Arabia. Hillary has no remorse about taking money from countries that abuse the rights of women, while she has always had her own alleged feminist stance. She does not refrain from receiving money from the countries that prosecute, torture and execute LGBT on the legal basis, although Hillary has always been a "defender" of the minorities.

So, why are so many people going to vote for her? That's a secret for me. What's your opinion on that point?

So let's do this. Since no one knew what he looked like and the bible forbade idolatry how about we all stop trying to draw Jesus!

Wikipedia: The term "semitic" means a member of any of various ancient and modern Semitic-speaking peoples originating in the Near East, including Hebrews (Israelites, Judeans and Samaritans), Bahranis, Maltese, Syriacs and Arabs.

Jesus was a Hebrew who lived 2000 years ago in the Middle East.

He looked a hell of a lot more like this

Than this

99% of people never moved further than maybe 100 miles from their place of birth in their lifetimes - no-one knew what a Middle Eastern Jew looked like, including the painters, who invented White Jesus so it would be easier for people to identify with the Christ.

That's right. White Jesus is Bible fan-fiction.
